

Department of English

The purpose of the English Department is to equip students with the necessary skills in composition, grammar, and literature to serve the Lord effectively in life and ministry. Recognizing the importance of articulate written communication, Northland offers a broad range of writing experiences that prepares students to express their knowledge and beliefs through effective academic, critical, and creative writing. Training in both basic and advanced grammar will provide the foundation and framework for effective writing. Students will also be exposed to an array of literature in order to cultivate an appreciation of fine literature and a biblical approach to that study.

Programs Offered

Bachelor of Arts in English

Bachelor of Science in English Education

The Bachelor of Arts in English prepares the individual with a well-rounded education in all areas of English as well as study of a second language to prepare for a variety of worldwide ministry opportunities. Extensive literature survey, coupled with a strong foundation in grammar and a particular emphasis on effective writing, makes this degree ideal for the student interested in English as a platform for vocational ministry or further study in graduate school.
