

Bible and Pastoral Theology

Dean

Dean: Curtis J. Lamansky, Ph.D.

Distinctives

The Division of Bible exists to fulfill II Timothy 2:2 by equipping and inspiring the next generation of servant-leaders for a lifetime of passionate personal learning and public ministry.

Goals

- Canonical Survey: Each student will receive a comprehensive survey of each book within the Protestant Bible.
- Language Acquisition: Each student will obtain a working knowledge of the Greek language.
- Theological Integration: Each student will be exposed to an integrated perspective to systematic theology.
- Expositional Integrity: Each student will receive instruction in the exegetical process for a word-centered, expositional approach to preaching.
- Historical Awareness: Each student will get an overview of both Church and Baptist history.
- Contemporary Relevancy: Each student will acquire a concentrated exposure to the issues within his major.
- Ministerial Balance: Each student will be challenged to develop excellence in academics as a means to a lifetime of loving and serving God.

Course Descriptions

Bible

BIB 111 Pentateuch (2)

A study of the first five books of the Old Testament that provides a firm foundation for further Bible study with a brief refutation of the arguments of higher criticism. Emphasizes the historical development of the Jewish nation from Abraham until the end of the wilderness wandering.

BIB 112 Historical Books (2)

A study of the nation of Israel including the entry into Palestine, the conquest of the land, the period of the judges, and the development of the monarchy in Israel until the intertestamental period.

BIB 121 The Gospels (2)

Begins with a survey of the intertestamental period followed by a study of the first four books of the New Testament, in particular the life and teachings of Christ. The Passion Week is given special emphasis.

BIB 122 Acts and Pauline Epistles (2)

A study of the Book of Acts and the Pauline Epistles. Emphasizes the history and development of each of the early churches in the Book of Acts.

BIB 136 Life of Moses (2)

A study of the career of Moses as recorded in the historical books of the Old Testament. Selected Psalms that correspond to Moses' life are also studied for their historical contributions and devotional significance.

BIB 211 O.T. Wisdom and Poetic Books (2)

A study of the Old Testament poetic books Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon.

BIB 212 Major and Minor Prophets (2)

A study of the Old Testament prophets, emphasizing the messages of the major and minor prophets.

BIB 221 General Epistles and Revelation (2)

A study of Hebrews stressing the superiority of Christ to the Old Testament institutions. A review of the basic doctrine of the general epistles. Study of the Book of Revelation from a premillennial, pretribulational point of view.

BIB 234 Life of David (2)

A study of the career of David, the second king of Israel, as recorded in the historical books of the Old Testament. Selected Psalms that correspond to David's life are also studied for their historical contributions and devotional significance.

BIB 244 Life of Christ (3)

A chronological study of Christ's life. Special emphasis will be given to major events, discourses, miracles, parables, and the passion week. Since background information greatly enhances one's understanding of the Gospels, features such as first century social and political groups, geography, and archaeology will be discussed.

BIB 285 Johannine Epistles (2)

An exegetical study of the letters of John. Special emphasis will be given to the individual themes of each epistle, their theology, and their relationship to the Gospel of John.

BIB 305 Bible Geography (2)

A study of the historical geography of the Bible lands with special attention to the land of Israel.

BIB 321 Pastoral Epistles (2)

An expositional study of Paul's inspired instructions concerning the challenge, responsibilities, qualifications, and message of the Christian ministry.

BIB 331 Old Testament Women (2)

A study of Old Testament women, emphasizing their roles in Scripture as well as character traits essential to being a godly woman. For women students only.

BIB 332 New Testament Women (2)

A study of how God worked in and through New Testament Women. For women students only.

BIB 340 Romans (3)

A systematic exposition of this doctrinal epistle, emphasizing Christ's completed work for the sinner and saint and its practical application to the believer's life.

BIB 362 Petrine Epistles (2)

An exegetical study of the books of 1 and 2 Peter, focusing on the themes developed by the author. Special emphasis will be given to the role of suffering in the life of the believer and the ethical imperatives placed upon them.

BIB 363 Galatians (3)

An exegetical study of the book of Galatians. Special emphasis will be given to the different theories of destination, the date and relationship of Galatians to the other books of the New Testament, the Galatian error, the theme of grace, and Paul's view of the Law.

BIB 366 Colossians and Philemon (3)

An exegetical study of the epistles of Colossians and Philemon. Special emphasis will be given to the background, setting, themes, theology, and issues of these books.

BIB 365 Ephesians (2)

An exegetical study of the book of Ephesians. Special emphasis will be given to the theological and practical ramifications of this book for today. Emphases will include the doctrines of the church, grace, and election, as well as the outworking of theological truth in the life of the believer.

BIB 382 James (2)

An exegetical study of the book of James. Special emphasis will be given to the Jewish nature of the book, the genre of the book, the allusions to the Old Testament and the Sermon on the Mount, the interpretive challenges, and the theme of the epistle as it relates to each section.

BIB 436 Daniel and Revelation (3)

An expositional study demonstrating the integration of the prophecies of Daniel with their fulfillment in Revelation.

BIB 440 1 Corinthians (3)

A study of Paul's instructions concerning church division, practical Christian living, marriage and divorce, Christian liberty, the gifts of the Spirit, the place of Christian love, and the importance of the Resurrection to the definition of the Gospel.

BIB 471 Isaiah (3)

A chapter-by-chapter study of the book of Isaiah. Special emphasis will be given to the historical setting of the book, the prophet himself, the themes of redemption and of the Messiah, as well as other prophetic implications.

BIB 472 Minor Prophets (2)

This course will take an in-depth look at the books of Hosea–Malachi. Special consideration will be given to the style, content, and themes contained in these important books of Scripture. Helpful suggestions will also be given on how to preach expository messages from the Minor Prophets.

BIB 451-456, 471–476 Old Testament Bible Analysis (2–3)

In-depth studies of individual Old Testament books offered periodically.

BIB 461-466, 481–486 New Testament Bible Analysis (2–3)

In-depth studies of individual New Testament books offered periodically.

Counseling and Psychology

PSY 121 Foundations for Biblical Living (3)

An introduction to the essentials of biblical counseling. A counseling philosophy and basic models for biblical change are presented, with a goal that includes a personal life evaluation and application to daily life.

PSY 202 Child and Adolescent Psychology (3)

A study of the physical, emotional, and intellectual development of the child from infancy through adolescence to maturity and how these stages relate to spiritual growth, home life, and school.

PSY 221 Principles of Counseling (2)

Prerequisite PSY 121

A study of basic counseling principles and elementary procedures for biblical counseling. This course is designed to equip the student with basic biblical models to use in solving counseling problems.

PSY 222 Biblical Counseling (2)

A study of more complex problems in counseling, using specific case studies, lecture, and discussion. Counseling skills dealing with issues such as child abuse, suicide, eating disorders, stress, pain, and grief will be biblically examined and developed.

PSY 241 Interpersonal Relationships (2)

A study of biblical principles for interrelating with God, family, employers, employees, neighbors, fellow workers, and the opposite sex.

PSY 315 Social Psychology (2)

An analysis of human behavior from a biblical perspective. It includes personality and motivation in professional, societal, and personal contexts.

PSY 341 Theories of Counseling (3)

A study of secular counseling and various "Christian" counselors emphasizing the proponents of different theories and how their ideas are viewed in the light of Scripture.

PSY 352 Counseling for the Christian Worker (3)

Prerequisite PSY 221

The intent of this course is to prepare the student to counsel people in a local church setting. This course addresses the typical counseling problems that occur in daily life. Instruction in assurance of salvation, solving conflicts, overcoming difficult circumstances, and controlling habits is the special focus of this course.

PSY 411 Abnormal Psychology (2)

A study of human behavioral problems and how they are diagnosed and treated. Emphasis is placed on the biblical principles that affect diagnosis and treatment.

PSY 431, 432 Case Studies I and II (2 each)

Prerequisite PSY 221

These courses are advanced counseling courses designed to provide an in-depth examination of major counseling problems. The student is enabled to confront biblically in both a ministry and clinical setting.

PSY 442 Marriage Counseling (2)

Prerequisite PSY 221

A consideration of complex problems in counseling married couples using specific case studies, lecture, and discussion. This course is particularly designed for ministerial students who will counsel in areas of moral, marital, and ministerial need.

Church Ministries

CHU 201 Fundamentals of Christian Education (3)

A survey of the history and philosophy of Christian education in the local church setting.

CHU 202 Children's Ministries (2)

A study of the various children's ministries available to the local church, including children's clubs, children's church, and bus ministries. The development of a children's ministry philosophy is considered, with the development of a mission statement for this ministry. The course gives practical experience in developing skills to reach children.

CHU 211 Sunday School Teaching Methods (2)

A study of the various methods and techniques of teaching Sunday school. Includes principles of writing Sunday school materials on various grade levels. Special emphasis is given to materials for the preteen years.

CHU 301 Technology in Ministry (2)

Explores the practical uses of technology in ministry. Lecture and hands-on training in Bible study and church management software as well as various digital and multimedia tools. The power and pitfalls of the Internet in ministry are discussed.

CHU 302 Sunday School Administration (2)

A comprehensive study of the organization, mechanics, and administration of a productive and well-ordered Sunday school. Planning, implementation, teaching, attendance increase, materials, leadership, and training in personal visitation are considered.

CHU 402 Summer Bible Ministries (2)

A study of the history of Vacation Bible School and its current contribution to the local church. Consideration is given to curriculum, activities, and promotion. Other summer ministries are discussed.

CHU 405 Christian Education of Adults (2)

A study of the characteristics and educational needs of adults in the local church. The course provides methods for instructing, discipling, and encouraging spiritual growth.

CHU 499 Church Ministries Internship (3)

Practical training in local church ministry is arranged with a local church pastor and coordinated through Northland. An evaluation from the pastor and a written report from the student are submitted on a regular basis to the department chair.

Youth Ministries

YTH 201 Foundations of Youth (3)

Designed to help students formulate a biblical philosophy of youth work. Stresses the need for patience in laying a foundation for a long-term youth ministry.

YTH 302 Youth Curriculum (2)

A study of the various curricula that are used for youth work. Provides experience in writing curricula.

YTH 306 Training Youth Leaders (2)

An analysis of the training of youth leaders. Emphasis on training adults to work with teens.

YTH 397 Youth Workers' Seminar (2)

Youth Workers' Seminar is held in March each year at THE WILDS Christian Camp and Conference Center in Brevard, North Carolina. Attendance arrangements may be made through the department chair.

YTH 399 Youth Lab Outreach (1)

A practical course in which the student is involved in an actual youth program under the supervision of a pastor and the college staff.

YTH 401 Youth Pastor (2)

Prerequisite YTH 201

A study of the youth pastor's heart relationship to the pastor, his ministry to homes, and his coping with hard-heartedness in a youth group.

YTH 403 Influencing Troubled Youth (2)

Gives biblical guidelines for dealing with difficult problem areas, such as dating, rebellion, drugs, broken homes, music, abortion, and homosexuality.

YTH 499 Youth Internship (3)

Course Descriptions

PRT 255, 256 Philosophy of Evangelism I and II (3 each)

An introductory course dealing with the scriptural basis for evangelism, the call of the evangelist, and foundational concepts toward developing a philosophy of evangelism.

PRT 301 Pastoral Theology I (3)

An examination of the pastoral office and its qualifications. Consideration is given to the matter of core values in ministry, a biblical philosophy of pastoral ministry, and an understanding of the pastoral qualifications as unfolded in I Timothy 3.

PRT 302 Pastoral Theology II (3)

A consideration of the development of the pastor's study life, his leadership in the programs of the church, and the administration of the ordinances of the church with emphasis on the conducting of church functions, such as weddings and funerals.

PRT 353, 354 History of Revival I and II (3 each)

Considers the history of revival from biblical times to the present. Defines and contrasts historic revival and revivalism and important figures involved in each.

PRT 365 Ministry and Methods of Evangelism (3)

Exposes the students to a number of practical ideas for effective ministry in a variety of local church and para-church settings.

PRT 401 Expository Preaching (3)

Prerequisite SPC 322.

A study of the philosophy, preparation, and practicality of preaching. Special emphasis is given to the issues of clarity and relevance in communication. Students have opportunities to apply what they've learned in actual preaching contexts.

PRT 402 Preaching Practicum (3)

Prerequisite SPC 322

This course assists the student in developing seasonal and occasional sermons, and provides further development of expository skills.

PRT 411 Business Administration for Pastors (2)

Ministry leadership styles and ministry management are the core tenets of this course. Practical skills, such as time management, budgeting plans and procedures, ministry goals, church policies, pastor/deacon relationships, and ministry checks and balances are discussed. Offered as a block course.

PRT 422 Church Planting (2)

An analysis of the basic principles for establishing local churches in the United States and on the mission field. The student will gain an understanding of church planting from a practical point of view. He will gain strategic principles for church growth by analyzing demographics and regional culture; and most importantly, he will discover how to establish a local church based on biblical philosophical methodology.

PRT 429 Church Planting Practicum (1)

Implementing information learned in PRT 422 on an actual field.

PRT 437 Campus Ministry (1)

Provides a philosophy and strategy for reaching collegians with the Gospel. Outreach models and a discipleship plan are presented that are fully integrated within local church ministry.

PRT 441 Christian Women in History (2)

An examination of the philosophy of womanhood leads into a study of historical and contemporary Christian women who have been greatly used of God. Application is drawn from their character and ministries. For women students only

PRT 442 Women Teaching Women (2)

Equipping women to properly communicate the Bible through effective study, preparation, and presentation. Various avenues of ministry include Bible studies, banquets, and retreats. For women students only

PRT 447 Urban Ministry (1)

A practical approach to urban ministry in the 21st century. The new urban reality is analyzed in its sociological context both here and abroad. Students will develop a biblical philosophy, a church planting strategy, and a new understanding of ministry within population centers.

PRT 463 Ministry Management in Evangelism (2)

A practical course designed to expose the student to strategies for effective management and organization in such areas as personal life, home life, travel, scheduling, and finances.

PRT 464 Modern Trends in Evangelism (2)

Discusses a variety of current issues facing evangelists in Fundamentalism today. Examines theories of evangelism and core motivations for modern evangelism and the church.

PRT 499 Pastoral Internship (3)

This practical training in pastoral ministry is arranged through Northland with a local church. The purpose of the program is to provide hands-on experience for the student under the supervision of a veteran pastor.
